PALAZZO LUCE ART & DESIGN HOUSE MUSEUM

Palazzo Luce, located in the historic center of Lecce, is the first art and design house museum in Puglia, open exclusively for hospitality. This 14th-century building blends historic grandeur with contemporary creativity, thanks to Anna Maria Enselmi's ambitious vision. She has curated a space that constantly evolves, featuring designers, artists, architects and emphasizing projects specifically tailored to the site. Visitors and guests can explore various art-filled rooms, halls, noble floors, suites, a terrace with a pool and a Mediterranean garden overlooking the Roman Theatre. The building's majestic volumes and sensitive lighting create a unique atmosphere. Inspired by Gio Ponti, Enselmi has collected rare furnishings, pieces and artworks that enrich the creative polyphony of Palazzo Luce.

The interior design reflects a contemporary interpretation of Mediterranean aesthetics, in the luminous dimension of a museum house that opens not to be visited but lived in.
