REDEFINING EXCLUSIVITY IN TRAVEL

Do Not Disturb is an invite-only private travel gathering created by This is Beyond, taking place at Borgo Egnazia in Puglia, Southern Italy, from 9–13 November 2026.

Removed from the noise of the wider luxury market, Do Not Disturb convenes a trusted global community of private travel leaders united by shared values of discretion, intention and exclusivity. This is a space where privacy is prioritised over visibility, and meaningful connection takes precedence over scale

As demand for ultra-private travel continues to deepen, the show showcases the world's most exceptional private residences, exclusive-use properties, private islands, yachts and immersive experiences — alongside full hotel buyouts designed for the most discerning high-end clientele.

Do Not Disturb is where trust is built, relationships are refined, and the future of private travel is shaped — quietly, deliberately, and together.

WHY ATTEND?

This is the quintessential marketplace for global private travel specialists

Building on the continued strength of Do Not Disturb, the 2026 edition brings together a carefully curated global community of leading buyers and suppliers shaping the most private tier of luxury travel.

This is not networking at scale, but connection by design — uniting those who craft rare experiences for the world's most discerning UHNW travellers.

Do Not Disturb 2026 is designed to enable you to:

- Secure meaningful private travel business for 2027 and beyond
- Deepen relationships within travel's most trusted, highest-spending network
- Gain considered insight into the evolving expectations of ultra-private travel
- Share your brand with a highly receptive audience — with both the influence and discretion to amplify it

A LOOK BACK AT DO NOT DISTURB 2025

WHY BORGO EGNAZIA?

The simple answer is: how could we not choose this acclaimed idyll?

Borgo Egnazia is an award-winning architectural masterpiece, where white-stone architecture, open piazzas and quiet courtyards echo the traditions of Puglia. Just 45 minutes from Brindisi and one hour from Bari, the resort unfolds between rolling countryside and the crystalline blues of the Adriatic.

Secluded beaches, ancient masserie and sun-warmed cobbled streets carry the scent of lavender and citrus, while regional cuisine and unhurried rhythms root the experience deeply in place.

For Do Not Disturb, Borgo Egnazia becomes a self-contained sanctuary — a village entirely reserved for our private community. With 64 rooms and suites in La Corte, 112 casette gathered around Il Borgo's central piazza, and 28 private villas, it offers rare space, privacy and discretion for a week shaped by connection, calm and considered luxury.
