HARBOURS OF TIME

Discover Puglia's coastal soul with Harbours in Time, a journey through historic seaports, sunlit piazzas, and timeless architecture.

Over two days, you'll explore the charm of Adriatic harbour towns where medieval walls meet lively promenades, uncover stories carved into stone cathedrals, and savour authentic flavours by the water's edge.

Designed by Indigenus Experiences, this pre-fam trip blends history, cuisine, and culture into an unforgettable celebration of Puglia's maritime heritage.

TRANI: STONES, SEA, AND SPIRIT

Wander through the winding streets of Trani's historical center, where sun-drenched stone buildings whisper centuries of stories. Once a vibrant hub of Mediterranean trade, the town bears traces of its diverse past, from Byzantine influences to Norman architecture. Pause at the old Jewish quarter, a testament to the community that enriched Trani's cultural and commercial life, leaving an indelible mark on the city's identity. Meander along the port, where the Adriatic glimmers under the late afternoon sun, before culminating your journey at the majestic Cathedral of San Nicola Pellegrino. Perched by the sea, this Romanesque masterpiece invites reflection on faith, history, and the enduring spirit of Trani.

BARI: THE HEARTBEAT OF THE OLD CITY

A morning in Bari's old town is a feast for the senses. As you wander its labyrinth of stone-paved streets, the city reveals its soul through both flavors and history. The air is filled with the scent of fresh focaccia and the sound of orecchiette being shaped by skilled hands in front of family homes - a living tradition that connects past and present. Along the way, stories of Bari's rich heritage unfold, from medieval palaces to hidden courtyards, leading to the magnificent Cathedral of San Sabino, a Romanesque treasure that anchors the city's identity. The experience weaves together taste and culture, offering an authentic encounter with Bari where every bite and every step leave a lasting memory.
