SASSI HIKING EXPERIENCE

Matera offers one of the most fascinating hikes in Italy, where history and nature meet in a breathtaking setting. Starting at the western edge of the Sassi, this easy-to-medium trail winds through the Parco della Murgia Materana, descending into a dramatic 200-foot gorge scattered with abandoned caves, forgotten hamlets, and over 150 rock-hewn churches. Crossing the river, you climb towards Belvedere Murgia Timone - where the Sassi reveal themselves in all their majesty. In about two hours, you'll experience not only the raw beauty of the rupestrian landscape but also the timeless story of a city carved in stone.
