TREASURE OF THE IONIAN COAST

BOUTIQUE LUXURY IN A HISTORIC MASSERIA

Nestled in a 70-hectare olive grove, Relais Histò melds centuries-old architecture with contemporary elegance, where history whispers through every stone and courtyard. CULTI's thoughtful restoration evokes serene harmony- soft earthy palettes, delicate fragrances, and Trani-stone interiors create a warm, timeless sanctuary. Guests drift between languid courtyard lounges, the quiet murmur of the Mediterranea, and a spa whose water paths and C-shaped pool dissolve the line between indoors and garden.

Evenings glow with poetic contrast: candlelit dinners in the ancient basilica or in the olive-framed Lanternaia courtyard, where local flavors unfold like stories. Relais Histò is not just a stay- it's a soulful immersion, where every space, scent, and sip invites guests to rediscover peace, memory, and beauty in perfect equilibrium.

GROTTAGLIE: THE LIVING SOUL OF PUGLIAN CERAMICS

In Grottaglie, the Puglian town par excellence for ceramic artistry, visitors embark on a journey where tradition and contemporary design meet. Among its historic workshops and winding streets, the ancient craft of shaping clay is still alive, passed down through generations. Here, the timeless language of ceramics finds new voices: traditional forms stand alongside bold contemporary creations, showing how heritage can evolve without losing its soul.

This experience reveals Grottaglie not only as a guardian of the past, but as a living workshop where creativity continues to thrive, shaping the identity of Puglia today.

TREASURE OF THE IONIAN COAST BETWEEN TARANTO AND ITRIA VALLEY

The second day begins in Taranto, a city where centuries of history meet the waters of the Ionian Sea. Through its remarkable archaeological heritage, including the renowned MARTA Museum and the fascinating world of marine life revealed at the Dolphin Museum, you will discover the many layers of a city shaped by both ancient civilizations and a deep connection to the sea.

In the afternoon, the journey continues to elegant Martina Franca, where Baroque architecture, refined atmosphere and local traditions create a uniquely Apulian charm. The day concludes with a dinner accompanied by a curated wine pairing in a local winery, celebrating the rich flavours and winemaking heritage of the region.
