

BUCCARA MARBELLA

Extraordinary stays, where stories unfold

Buccara, meaning "The Secret Place" in Swahili, is more than a privately owned collection of exclusive villas -it's a world of timeless beauty, designed for those who see travel as an art form.

From the sun-kissed shores of Marbella to the vineyards of Stellenbosch, each residence holds a story. Stories of craftsmanship, of culture, of connection. Stories waiting for you to step inside and continue them.

Born from love of architecture, art, and soul-stirring spaces, Buccara defines luxury not by excess, but by emotion. There are new rules. There is just a sense of comfort that can be best described as "home away from home"...
