Do Not  Disturb

REDEFINING EXCLUSIVITY IN PRIVATE TRAVEL

THE STORY

The latest evolution from This is Beyond – the community creators behind PURE Life Experiences, L.E./Miami, We Are Africa and Further East – discover the global private travel community and event dedicated to seclusion, sustainability and true exclusivity.

Privacy has always been synonymous with luxury. 2020 proved that safety – and seclusion – are priceless.

From secluded residences, pristine islands and private yachts to exclusive experiences and full hotel buyouts, the COVID-19 pandemic has driven huge demand for private travel. And for a growing collective of high-end travellers, it's a mindset that looks set to endure.

Launching with a fully digital edition in June 2021 – with a physical reunion in Mallorca planned for April 2022 – Do Not Disturb is the inspired community set to redefine the true meaning of exclusivity in travel.

SO FAR

WHY ATTEND?

Until now, there has never been a dedicated marketplace for global private travel specialists.

For the very first time, we're uniting top-tier buyers and suppliers who curate rare and remarkable private experiences for the UHNW traveller, so you can:

- Increase your data base of top tier suppliers in the exclusive use sector
- Grow your personal network of leaders in travel's highest-spending niche
- Gain unique insights into the ever-evolving world of private travel
- Learn about supplier audience, in order to share their stories and unique product offerings with your clients
- Begin your journey towards Mallorca in April 2022 – where the Do Not Disturb community will gather physically for the first time

We're looking for thoughtful brands who embody our ethos: space, seclusion & sustainability.

SPACE

From private islands to secret groves, your property or service offers pure escapism – both physical and mental – from the real world.

SECLUSION

Masters of discretion and avoiding crowds, privacy is your specialty – and deeply personal, sky's-the-limit service comes as standard.

SUSTAINABILITY

Committed to protecting people and the planet, you place green principles at the core of your ethos. Private travel has often been at odds with sustainability: you know they can peacefully coexist.

“Winston Churchill once famously said: ‘I’m easily satisfied with the very best’. Do Not Disturb fills exactly that void in the marketplace. We look forward to bringing our portfolio of exceptional XO Private members to the table.”
