

PRE & POST TOURS 2024

TERMS & CONDITIONS

- To be included and promoted through the official Do Not Disturb 2024 Pre & Post Tour Programme all offers should be at a discounted cost or on complementary basis for registered Do Not Disturb 2024 Buyers and Press. In some instances, but not all, this special rate can also be extended to Do Not Disturb 2024 registered Exhibitors.
- Do Not Disturb Pre & Post Tours 2024 are designed only for the benefit of those individuals attending Do Not Disturb 2024; however, the participation of any individual is subject to availability and according to the discretion of the host supplier.
- All offers are subject to availability and the discretion of the host supplier.
- All arrangements must be made directly between the guest and the host supplier and attention should be paid to the host supplier's specific terms and conditions.
- Do Not Disturb accepts no responsibility or involvement in any arrangements – be they organisational, travel, payments or otherwise – or in any issues arising from a Pre & Post Tour.
- All Do Not Disturb delegates are required to be in Puglia by the morning of Monday 11 November 2024 and can depart anytime on Friday 11 November 2024 – it is both the host's and the guests' responsibility to ensure that the arrangements of their Pre & Post Tours facilitate these dates.
- There is no limit on the number of Pre & Post Tours an exhibitor may offer, but Do Not Disturb reserves the right to select only those they see fit for promotion through the official Do Not Disturb Pre & Post Tour Programme.
- Do Not Disturb reserves the right to edit and display all content submitted for the purposes of promoting the Do Not Disturb Pre & Post Tours across marketing channels.
- To be included in the Pre & Post Tour Programme, itineraries need to be made up of at least 80% of registered 2024 Do Not Disturb product. Any non-Do Not Disturb product used will need to be pre-approved by the Do Not Disturb team.
